

BIOGRAPHY

CW5 Consiglio, Joachim J.

CW5 Consiglio, Joachim is currently serving as the Headquarters Department of the Army G4, Senior Logistics Advisor. He has served in the active duty Army for over 30 years working in myriad of logistical assignments.

His previous assignments include duty with the United States Army Deputy Chief of Staff G4, Pentagon, United States Army Africa (SETAF), Vicenza, Italy; 1st Armored Division, Wiesbaden, Germany; 13th Sustainment Command (E), Fort Hood, TX; 64th Corps Support Group, Fort Hood, TX; U.S. Army Allied Forces Southern Europe (NATO), Naples, Italy; 15th Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Hood, TX; 307th Signal Battalion, Camp Carroll, Korea.

He held numerous positions including Army Senior Logistics Advisor; G4, Sustainment Operations Division OIC; G4 Service and Supply OIC; MACOM/Division CSDP Coordinator; Division Property Book Officer; Senior Logistics Advisor for Iraqi Security Forces (ISF); Corps Support Group Property Book Officer; G4 Deputy Sustainment Command; Joint Accountable Officer in a NATO depot; Battalion Property Book Officer; Battalion S4; Battalion Budget Officer; Battalion CSDP Monitor.

His military education includes the Global Combat Support System-Army, Property Book Course, Warrant Officer Senior Staff Course, Warrant Officer Staff Course, the Warrant Officer Advance and Basic Course (Quartermaster), Contracting Officer Representative Course, the Airlift Planner's Course, Support OP Course (PH 1), and the NATO Staff Officer Course.

CW5 Consiglio is a graduate of Trident University International with a Masters of Business Administrations (Human Resources); graduate of Excelsior College with a Bachelor's in Business Administration; graduate of Northern Virginia Community College with an Associate's in General Studies.

He has been awarded the Demonstrated Master Logistician reorganization by the International Society of Logistics) for his Army contributions for Logistics. This program provides intermediate recognition of professional performance and continuing education in the individual fields of practice within the profession