

What's new at Bellevue University

Graduate Level - Business Analytics Certificate of Completion:

Don't want to do a full degree program in Business? Try this 9-credit (3 classes) certificate of completion, also available for undergraduate work. <http://www.bellevue.edu/degrees/certificates-of-completion/analytics>. While you are visiting the webpage, take a look (in the left hand column) at all of our certificates of completion.

MOOC – Massive Open Online Course:

FREE! Discover how to turn your experience into college credit. Next 12-week session starts November 2. You can also sign up to have your portfolio of prior experience evaluated for undergraduate-level college credit. Contact Michelle Eppler or Jonathan Titus at cpe@bellevue.edu.

Partnerships:

Bellevue University enjoys great partnerships with four organizations: Air Force Sergeants Association, U.S. Army Warrant Officers Association, US Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Association and the Non Commissioned Officers Association. Members of these associations are eligible for tuition waivers. Contact Willie at willie.woolford@bellevue.edu for more information.

Military Veteran Services Center (MVSC):

Legal Support Network was just added! Mick Wagoner (retired Marine) provides pro bono legal advice to our Veterans and joins many other services available at the center. Veterans can contact him at mickw@vlsn.org, or 402-765-8387. This is part of the Veterans Legal Support Network at vlsn.org.

Degree Spotlight

Master of Science in Leadership and Coaching: The perfect major for anyone wanting to gain supervisory skills and to motivate and mentor people. You can also earn a Certificate of Completion in Executive Coaching while in the program. This degree will prepare you to take the certification with the International Coach Federation. Great for Senior NCOS and Officers.
